Students must research their courses and try to obtain approval for those courses before they arrive in Madrid. Once in Madrid, students will register for courses with Dr. Ana Peláez.

Students interested in enrolling in Dr. Peláez's course, Spanish Cultural Studies, should scroll down to view a course description.

While reviewing the courses, students should remember that 1º cuatrimestre refers to the fall semester and 2º cuatrimestre for the spring semester.

There are two types of classes at Carlos III: Cursos de Estudios Hispánicos (CEH) and grados classes. CEH classes are taught in Spanish but are designed for and offered exclusively to American students attending Universidad Carlos III. Grados are classes taught in English and Spanish and are with Spanish students.

Information about the courses offered at Carlos III can be found by following the instructions below:

Curso de Estudios Hispánicos

SPANISH CULTURAL STUDIES

Professor: Dra. Ana Peláez – BC in Madrid Coordinator

Course description: In this course we will study a set of artistic expressions (painting, sculpture, architecture, theatre, cinema, gastronomy and folklore) created in Spain from the Middle Ages up to the present day, analyzing the historical and socio-cultural context in which they were produced. The objective of the course is to give an overview of the most relevant Spanish cultural expressions. We will analyze their roots, influences, peculiarities and their most characterizing and differentiating traits. This course is organized from a thematic point of view and is presented chronologically. A special emphasis will be placed on Hispano-Islamic artistic manifestations and the strong influence of the Muslim world in Hispanic culture. This will include a study trip to Córdoba and Granada.
